We are okay with your changes, with one exception. Paragraph 6:

CHANGE: One attorney appearing on behalf of Ernst & Young and one attorney appearing on behalf of the Oversight Board shall defend the deposition of the EY Representative, and those attorneys may object to the DRA Parties' questions, absent privilege issues that require additional attorneys' involvement.

TO: Only one attorney shall defend the deposition of the EY Representative, and only that attorney may object to the DRA Parties' questions, absent privilege issues that require additional attorneys' involvement.

Please let us know if we need to discuss, or if we can make this change and put this issue to rest.

Thank you,
Taleah.

Taleah –

Attached please find our edits to the stipulation. EY is not going to sign onto the stipulation but they have represented that they will accept the subpoena and provide the witness. And the Oversight Board will adopt the witness's for purposes of the Rule. We revised the stipulation accordingly.

Let me know if you would like to discuss. Thanks.

Julia

Margaret:

Attached is a stipulation setting forth the terms we discussed. We would like to get this finalized and signed today, so we can then issue the subpoena to EY.

Thanks for your help getting this done.

Taleah.
